Get your music to the Xtreme...

- Klip Xtreme introduces its new headset KSH-320 with a compact Omni-directional microphone to take advantage of all the latest and traditional applications for voice chatting and VoIP internet calls.
- Perfect for your digital devices such as DVDs and MP3/MP4 players, notebooks, and Desktops and other players with a standard 3.5 mm plug.
- Control the volume directly from the headphones with a practical adjusting wheel when you are not close to the sound source.

- Leatherette ear pads for higher comfort.
- Nylon cord to say good bye to the usual entanglement and rigidity of traditional ones. With 7.25 feet long, enough distance to move reasonably without restrictions and without losing the rhythm of your tunes.
- And so light for its type, you might wonder how come they're so functional and complete. Klip Xtreme, designed to be all you ever wanted.
